IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
LAREDO DIVISION

TOMILEE RAMIREZ,
Plaintiff,

V.

C.A. NO. 5:23-CV-140

MARISSA GARZA AND DESTINY GONZALEZ,
Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S ADVISORY TO THE COURT

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

COMES NOW, Plaintiff, Tomilee Ramirez, and files this Advisory to the Court, respectfully showing the Court as follows:

1. On 10/30/2023, Plaintiff filed the original complaint in the above-referenced case as shown in EXHIBIT A. In the original complaint, Plaintiff did not request a jury trial.
2. Plaintiff has recently become aware that the Defendants, in their Civil Cover Sheet shown in EXHIBIT B filed with their responsive pleading may be frivolous, indicating in Part VII "Requested in Complaint" that a jury demand was made. However, Plaintiff asserts that no such jury demand was initially marked or requested in the original complaint.
3. Plaintiff brings this discrepancy to the attention of the Court to ensure the record accurately reflects the pleadings and requests made in this case.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take notice of this discrepancy and consider it as appropriate in the proceedings.
